The Privilege to Teach and Train Disciples:

We praise the Lord for the opportunity that we have had through the years to have and teach in our Bible College that we have here. We have seen several men trained for the ministry and many grow in their knowledge of the Word of God. This semester we are offering several classes with Pastor Pablo teaching New Testament Survey, I am teaching Spiritual Warfare and Charismatics and we have two ladies' classes this time with my wife teaching Women in the Bible and Courtney teaching Children's Ministry. It has been a true joy to see the people in my classes grow and understand more of the Word. We have a new family at the church in Chiquicollo that is taking my class on Charismatics. They come from a Charismatic background but have been surprised at many of the truths that they are learning for the first time. Here is an excerpt from a homework assignment that one of them did. "This class and the second chapter of our reading has truly changed my perspective about the value and sufficiency of the Scriptures when it comes to new revelations and prophecies. What confronted me most was understanding how easy and irresponsible it can be to use language like, "God told me" giving the same authority to feelings of personal desires that we give to the divine authority that only belongs to the Bible. I was confronted with the seriousness and fear that we should have when it comes to false prophecy comparing what it says in Deuteronomy 18 to how easily someone might share "a word from the Lord" today." We praise the Lord and pray that we will see many more disciples prepared for the Lord.

The Privilege to Train Pastors:

This past month, we were also able to have our yearly training time for the pastors here. The topic this time was on Hermeneutics and Homiletics. I feel like this is one of the most important topics to learn as a pastor, seeing that our main job is teaching, preaching, and disciplining from the Word of God. Too often, we hear horror stories of preaching that strays from a true Hermeneutical study of the Bible that is necessary for a correct interpretation and clear presentation of the truth the Lord conveys to us from His Word. It was truly a blessing, and we had not only pastors from our churches but also a few from other churches here in our city. We pray that the result will be that the Word of God can be preached to show its true power, as shown in Hebrews 4:12.

The Privilege to Help Churches:

This past month and more recently since we have returned to Bolivia, I have had the opportunity to preach in several different churches. I was able to preach in a church in a rural area here called Anocaraire, also for a pastor friend named Arial Fernandez, and then I was able to visit Pastor Juan Lamett for their anniversary at the church in Santa Cruz. I thank the Lord for opportunities to be a help and blessing to these churches.

Prayer Requests:

1. Pray for our Bible College classes and those that are learning that they will be more prepared to serve the Lord.
2. Pray for two different couples that we are doing marriage counseling with that will marry in the next few months.
3. Pray for our plans to start a new church, Lord willing, the first part of next year.
4. Pray for the churches and pastors here that we can be a help and blessing.
